Direct

TIME	0 to 1 Hour	1 to 12+ Hours (Delays heavily influenced by waiting for family or hospital body releases)	6 to 24+ Hours (Varies due to environmental factors like rain or queues for electric cremation)	Day 2 to Week 2+ (Varies due to institutional factors like bank, BBMP)
PHASE	The First Hour	Preparation & Transit	Cremation & Burial	Post-Cremation & Mourning
PHYSICAL EVIDENCE	Personal phones, local hospital, municipal counters.	Local market, unverified freezer boxes, cash for payments.	Wood pyre, cash for payments.	Municipal office counters, physical ashes.
CUSTOMER ACTIONS	Call family doctor/clinic and make a physical visit for paperwork. Manually share the news via WhatsApp/calls.	Queue at the municipal counter to book a slot. Find a freezer box and run to the market for ritual materials. Find a priest and haggle for a hearse.	Manage traffic during the procession. Make multiple individual payments and give tips to wood sellers and bearers.	Physically return to the crematorium after 2 days to collect ashes. Make multiple trips to the municipal office for death registration. Rent a community hall.
LINE OF INTERACTION
FRONTSTAGE ACTIONS	Interactions with the local doctor and municipal clerks.	Interactions with up to 4-5 independent vendors , including priests, hearse drivers, and shopkeepers.	Interactions with crematorium staff and wood sellers.	Interactions with local community members and govt institutions.
LINE OF VISIBILITY
BACKSTAGE ACTIONS	Clinic staff processing the documentation.	Vendors managing the supply of freezer boxes and vehicles.	Crematorium staff managing the queue of incoming bodies.	Govt institutions processing the legal filing.
LINE OF INTERNAL INTERACTION
SUPPORT PROCESSES	Medical logs and municipal database	Payment process	Crematorium's scheduling and cycle management systems	Civil registration system

Middlemen and end to end services

TIME	0 to 1 Hour	1 to 4 Hours (Streamlined due to pre-booked slots and readily available standardized kits)	4 to 8 Hours (Faster processing, though still subject to some municipal/crematorium queues)	Day 2 to Week 2+ (Ashes delivered to home ; death certificate delivered seamlessly)
Phase	The First Hour	Preparation & Transit	Cremation & Burial	Post-Cremation & Mourning
PHYSICAL EVIDENCE	online chat or direct phone call.	Standardized funeral materials, sanitized freezer boxes, GPS-tracked hearse.	All-inclusive payment app or lump-sum cash.	Delivered urns, delivered death certificates, booked venues.
CUSTOMER ACTIONS	Call the middleman or use the startup's 24/7 help chat.	Receive a standardized material kit for the rituals. Allow professional caregivers to prepare the body and contact available priests.	Attend the procession without worrying about the procession flow. Pay an all-inclusive ammount to the middleman or the service provider.	Receive collected ashes at home. Receive the death certificate at home without visiting the municipal office. Attend the catered mourning event.
LINE OF INTERACTION
FRONTSTAGE ACTIONS	Direct contact with the middleman or startup representative.	Certified priests and professional drivers in uniform.	Startup/Middleman handling the transition from home to the crematorium.	Startup/Middleman delivering documents and managing the Visarjan package.
LINE OF VISIBILITY
BACKSTAGE ACTIONS	Coordinating a visit from a doctor.	Digital coordination with the crematorium for pre-booked slots. Dispatching standardized kits.	Middleman distributing payments to individual vendors.	Startup handling the legal filing at the municipal office on the family's behalf.
LINE OF INTERNAL INTERACTION
SUPPORT PROCESSES	end-to-end service's communication backend picking doctor from existing network	crematorium booking portal. delivery logistics for materials. picking available priest from existing network	Payment process connecting with partners for hearse/ dead body ambulance	Civil registration system